I'm a 21 year-old student living near Paris and studying for a Master's Degree in Web Design at ECV Digital. Consider me a young student who dreams of marrying the love of web and graphic design with all of her passions. If you want to send me to the other side of the world, I will never say no. If you want me to learn a new language, I'll do it with pleasure. If you want me to bribe you with a cake, we can discuss it.
